QUESTIONS

1. How will you help support the reunification process between the foster child placed in your home and his/her family?

2. How will you ensure that a child placed with you, who is of a different race than you, will have his/her cultural needs met?

3. How will you prepare yourself and your family to cope when a child who you have been fostering is returned to their birth family?

4. What comfort level do you have in working directly with the foster child's birth parents or extended family?
