

Do you need a safe place for your baby to sleep?

Children's Wisconsin - Janesville Office, Cribs for Kids® program provides free pack and plays. It is for parents or caregivers of infants residing in Rock County. It is for those who do not have a safe place for their infant to sleep and cannot afford a crib or pack and play.

We will teach you about safe sleep for infants. You can be connected to other resources in the community.

Eligible Families can receive a crib kit that includes:

- A Cribette™
- A pacifier
- A sleep sack
- "Sleep Baby Safe and Snug" book
- Safe sleep education and resources

Families need an appointment with the Cribs for Kids program to receive a crib kit.
