

Student Orientation Quiz

Name _____

- True or False 1. Children's vision is the healthiest kids in the country.
- True or False 2. Children's Social Media Policy includes information regarding Facebook.
- True or False 3. Children's was ranked in eight specialties by U.S. News & World Report.
- True or False 4. Infants enjoy toys and stuff animals and the best place to keep them in the infant's crib.
- True or False 5. Toddlers can learn sign language.
- True or False 6. Pre-schoolers do not like when you draw happy faces on their Band-Aids.
- True or False 7. School-age children do not need a booster seat.
- True or False 8. It's a good idea to knock before entering into a teenagers room.
- True or False 9. One of the Joint Commission's Safety goals is improving staff communication.
- True or False 10. One of the identifiers is using the patient's room number.
- True or False 11. You should label medication where the medications are set up.
- True or False 12. Children's tracks all safety concerns through an online database.
- True or False 13. Children's policy is to wash your hands before and after patient contact.
- True or False 14. To prevent surgical site mistakes the surgical site should not be marked.
- True or False 15. Yellow bags should be used for biohazard or chemo materials.
- True or False 16. Dialing 66 will notify Security services about an urgent safety issue.
- True or False 17. The order to reliably care for a patient is heal me, keep me safe and be nice to me.
- True or False 18. The teach-back method is using your own words to repeat directions you just received.
- True or False 19. It's ok to wear artificial nails and have nose piercings.
- True or False 20. Nursing students can use cell phones in all areas of the hospital.
- True or False 21. Anything you hear or see must be confidential.
- True or False 22. There are areas at Children's where parents and employees can smoke.
- True or False 23. Security department office is located in the main lobby of the hospital.
- True or False 24. Children's has a site survey for students to take on line.
- True or False 25. The wealth of knowledge you learned from reviewing the information is priceless.