

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

CERTIFICATE OF ACHIEVEMENT

HONORING

David Margolis, M.D.

DR. BRUNO LAMBERT JEWISH GOOD GUY IN SPORTS AWARD JEWISH SPORTS HERITAGE ASSOCIATION

WHEREAS, David Margolis, M.D. has worked at Children’s Wisconsin—specializing in pediatric hematology-oncology—since 1992, and he currently serves as the hospital’s interim pediatrician-in-chief, the program director of the bone marrow transplant and cellular therapy program, and the eponymous David A. Margolis Chair in Pediatric Bone Marrow Transplant; and

WHEREAS; in addition to his work at Children’s Wisconsin, David Margolis, M.D. serves as a professor of pediatrics and as the interim chair of the department of pediatrics at the Medical College of Wisconsin; and

WHEREAS; David Margolis, M.D. is passionate about Wisconsin sports and shares this passion with his patients at Children’s Wisconsin, using sports-related antics to encourage kids fighting cancer to set goals, nurture their spirit, and give them a reason to smile; and

WHEREAS; as a Milwaukee Bucks “superfan,” Dr. Margolis, M.D. has attended countless games and has carried on a special tradition of allowing his patients to dye his hair for playoff games in order to boost morale and encourage healing and recovery; and

WHEREAS; on Sunday, May 1, 2022, David Margolis, M.D. is being honored at the national level with the Dr. Bruno Lambert Jewish Good Guy in Sports Award from the Jewish Sports Heritage Association, encouraging us all to challenge stereotypes and promote inclusivity; and

WHEREAS; David Margolis, M.D. has dedicated his career to caring for children, both at Children’s Wisconsin with his many commitments to organizations serving kids and families in Southeastern Wisconsin, and he is a recognized clinical, academic, and administrative leader in the medical community;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby commend David Margolis, M.D. for his many years of dedicated service caring for kids and families across our state.

DONE ON THIS 27TH DAY OF APRIL 2022.

TONY EVERS
GOVERNOR
