

Resources

Name	Website and description	Features
Signing Savvy	https://www.signingsavvy.com/ Extra features with a paid membership.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Browse signs by letter • View shared word lists
ASLpro.com	http://aslpro.com/ ASL dictionaries and educational games. Most tools are free to use.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dictionaries • ASL for babies • Quizzes
ASL University (ASLU)	https://www.lifeprint.com/ This is a web site for teachers and students. Many tools to learn ASL. Many are free. You do need Adobe Flash player on the computer to use it correctly. There are also instructor-guided courses you can use for a fee.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 30 different ASL lessons • Vocabulary words A to Z • ASL phrases • Advanced signs • Finger Spelling • Jokes in ASL (Jokes are a very important part of Deaf culture. It is a way for the community to pass on their language from generation to generation.) • Workbook with practice sentences
Wisconsin Deaf Mentor Program	https://wesp-dhh.wi.gov/outreach/services/resources/dmp/ Free program that provides families with opportunities to learn sign vocabulary and American Sign Language. Can request services on the website.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For children confirmed with hearing loss, ages 3 – 21 • Matched with a Deaf Mentor trained and fluent in American Sign Language • Deaf Mentor First Steps Program (beginners) and Deaf Mentor Program (experienced)

Other resources and teaching sheets that may be helpful

#1899 Hearing loss resources: Birth to 3 years

#1900 Hearing loss resources: 3 to 21 years

The Regional Centers for Children and Youth with Special Healthcare Needs:

<https://www.dhs.wisconsin.gov/cyshcn/regionalcenters.htm>

ALERT: Call your child's doctor, nurse, or clinic if you have any questions or concerns or if your child has special health care needs that were not covered by this information.

This sheet was created to help you care for your child or family member. It does not take the place of medical care. Talk with your healthcare provider for diagnosis, treatment and follow-up.